

NEW-YORK DAILY TRIBUNE, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 9, 1856.

TARRYTOWN INSTITUTE.—In this Institute young Gentlemen are prepared for Commercial Pursuits and Professions. The discipline is mild and parental. Instruction thorough and practical and no one is allowed to remain in the institution whose deportment or exertions do not give to the others. The Professors and Instructors are all men of great talents, from $250 per annum, according to age and studies. Summer Term commences MAY 1. Circulars, with references, view of the Institute, &c., may be obtained by addressing J. A. NEWMAN, Principal.

THE well-known Professor J. O. RIBAS has at present some space there, which may be appropriate to the TEACHING of two or three more Scholars. Those who wish to learn the Italian language may apply to him. He is a native of Italy, and has been educated in that country. His school has had the opportunity, and will do so again, of giving the scholars the best instruction in the art and studies. Summer Term commences MAY 1. Circulars, with references, view of the Institute, &c., may be obtained by addressing J. A. NEWMAN, Principal.

THE SUMMER TERM OF MRS. J. T. BENEDICT'S SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES will commence April 22, No. 4 West Street, second door from the water.

WILTON MALE BOARDING ACADEMY, located at Wilton, Conn.—The Principal has been erecting a new and commodious building for the accommodation of his pupils. He attends personally to the teaching. Terms moderate. Circulars can be obtained at the Office at Wilton, or at Booksellers generally. AUGUSTUS WHITLOCK, Principal.

YONKERS, N. Y.—THE FEMALE CLASSICAL SCHOOL is now open, with the advantages of a classical education, the study of French, German, &c., &c. It is situated on a hill, a short distance from the Hudson. Session commences May 1. Circulars obtainable at Clark & Austin, No. 3 Park Row, N. Y., or the Principal, H. S. BURGARD, Mrs. A. J. DODSON.
